Dear Brethren:

I appreciate the invitation offered me recently to preach in a gospel meeting at the Bybee Branch congregation in 1966. The dates are acceptable to me with one exception. I do not have enough Sundays to give any one congregation more than one full Sunday. If you desire me to come under that arrangement, I would be happy to begin the meeting on Monday night, April 4 and continue through the following Tuesday night, April 12, 1966, giving you one complete Sunday.

I am pleased at the work which the congregation there is doing. It would be an honor to work with you but will have to offer my acceptance tentative due to your decision about this one change. In view of schedule pressures, I would like to hear from you as soon as possible.

I send you all of my very best regards and especially my very good friend, Buford Holt.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
